

The proposed FCC rules change that would allow more consolidation of media ownership is bad for democracy since it would have the effect of suppressing different points of view. I strongly oppose it. Americans already have a difficult time getting a variety of points of view from the U.S. mass media. The proposed rules changes will greatly exacerbate the problem. Please either vote against the change or delay the vote.